The Gloucester Smart House for People with Dementia

Dr Roger Orpwood

Bath Institute of Medical Engineering

University of Bath, UK

Gloucester smart house

The collaborating team

Dementia Voice

Housing 21

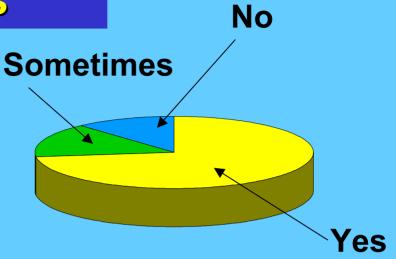

Bath Institute of Medical Engineering

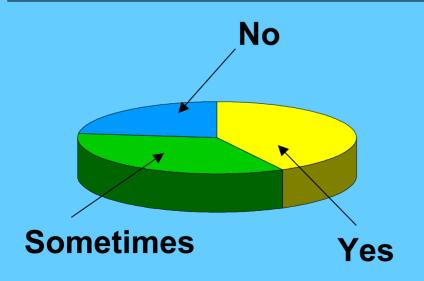

User Involvement

- Discussions with care professionals
- Survey of needs with carers
- Discussions with carers
- Evaluations with carers and users

Survey of needs

"Does the person you care for have difficulty using appliances to prepare food?"

"Does the person you care for have problems recognising written signs?"

Gloucester smart house

Priorities

Leisure activities

Bathroom flooding

Cooker & fire usage

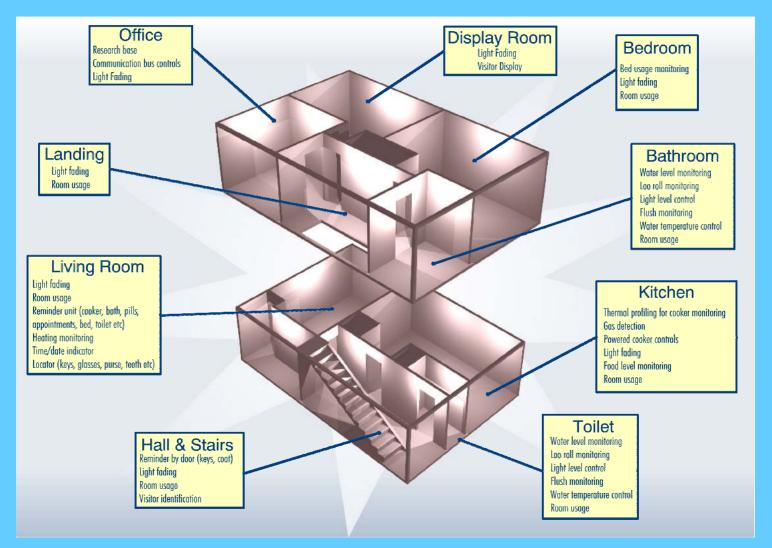

Falling

Night-time wandering

Taking medication

Forgetting keys

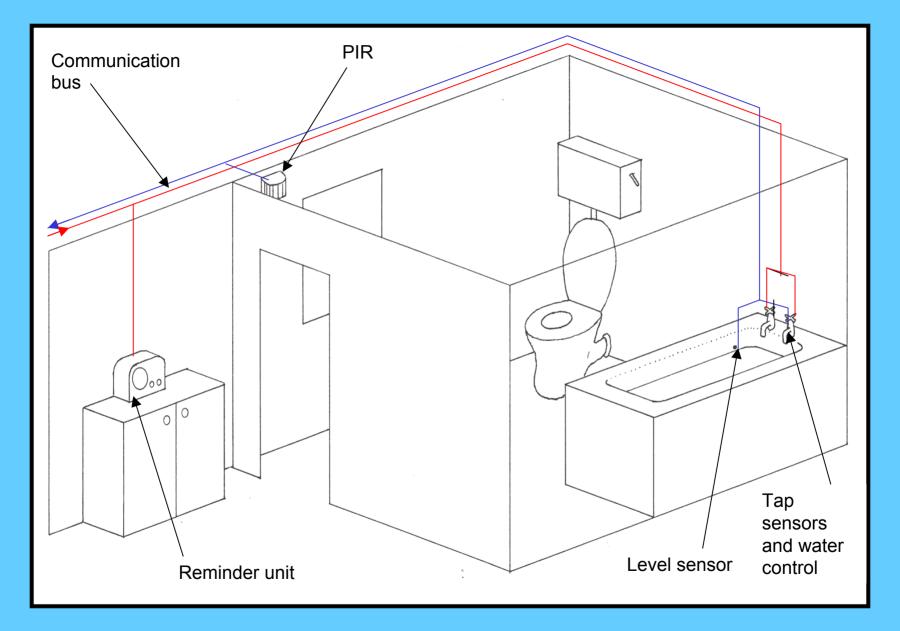

Smart house rooms

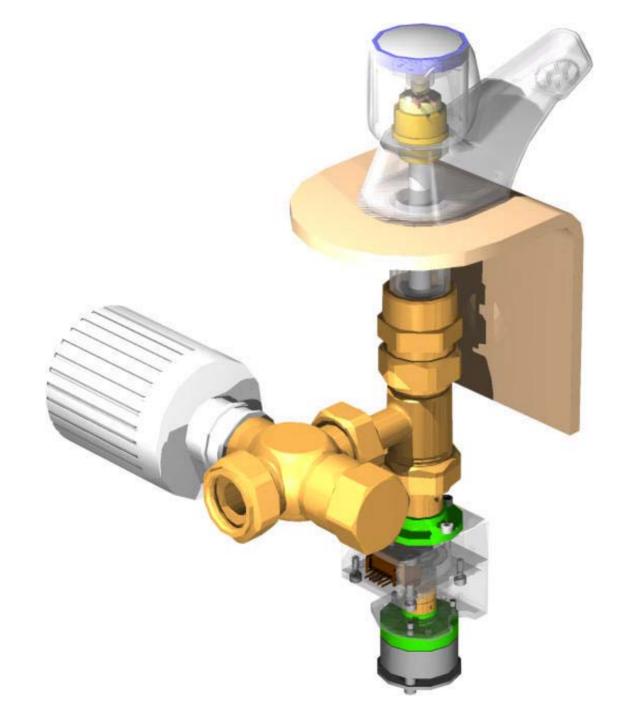

Gloucester smart house

Design philosophy

Tap monitor

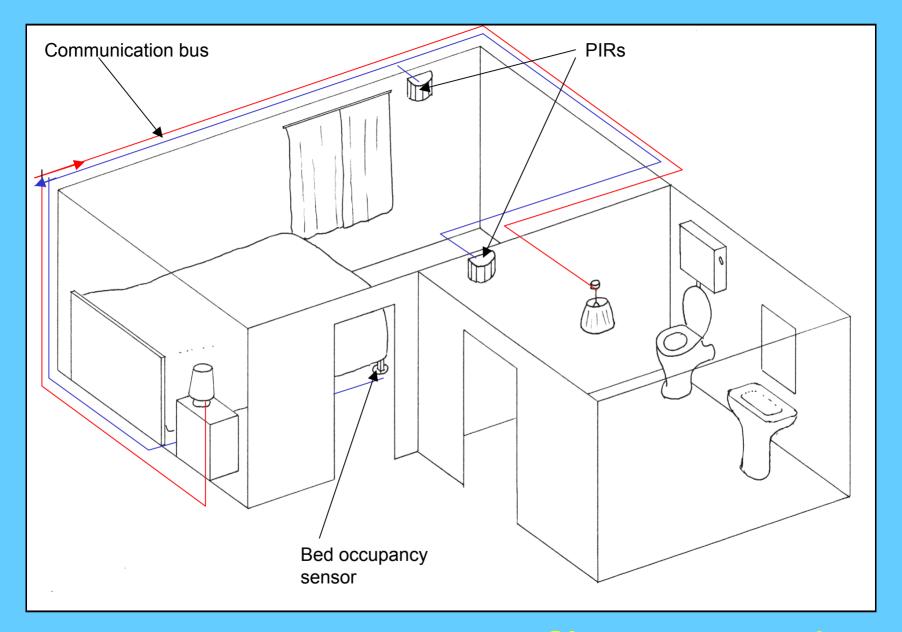

Gloucester smart house

Evaluations

Example: Night lighting

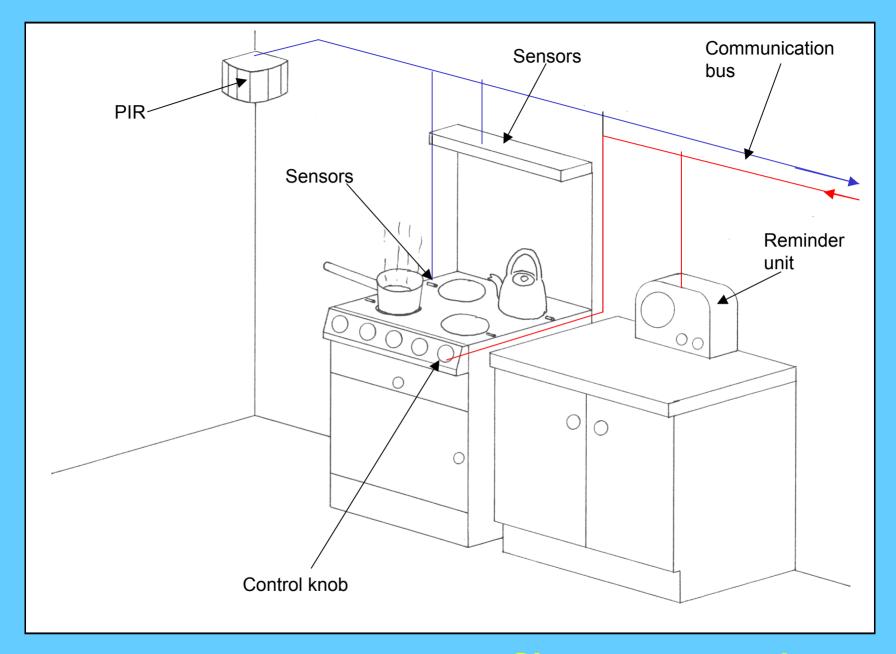

Gloucester smart house

Monitoring user behaviour

Example: Cooker monitor

Gloucester smart house

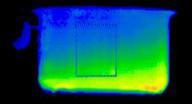

The BIME Cooker Knob for people with dementia

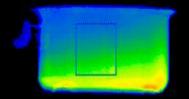

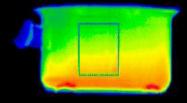

Thermal images of a pan boiling on a gas ring

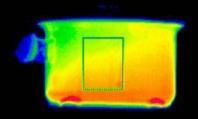

Heating up

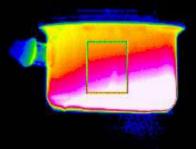

Heating up

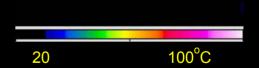

Boiling

Boiling

Boiled dry

Infra-red sensing

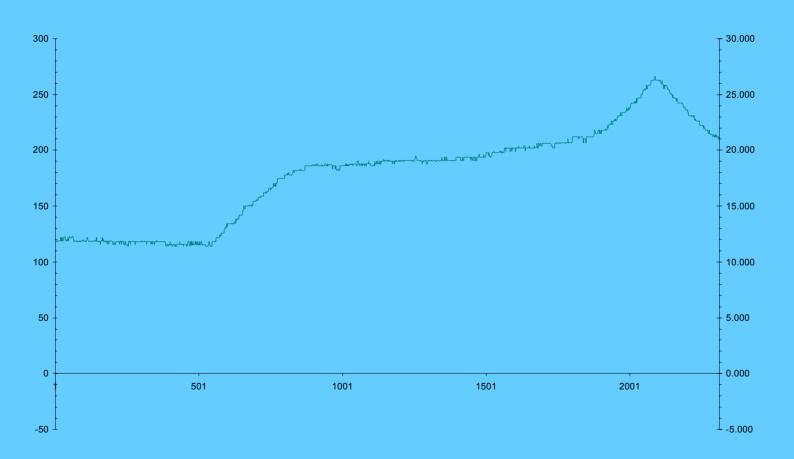

Sensor mounting

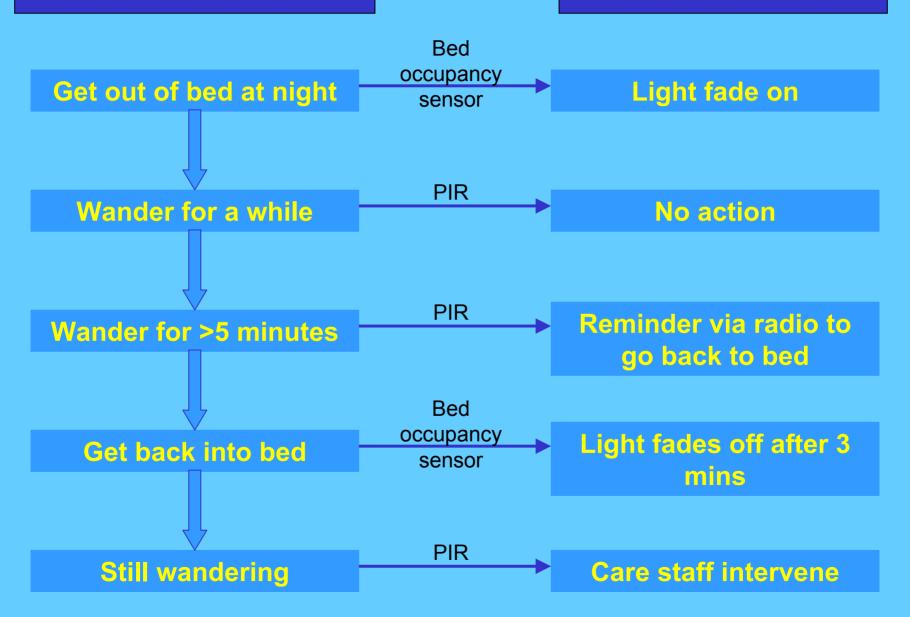

Typical raw data

Communication

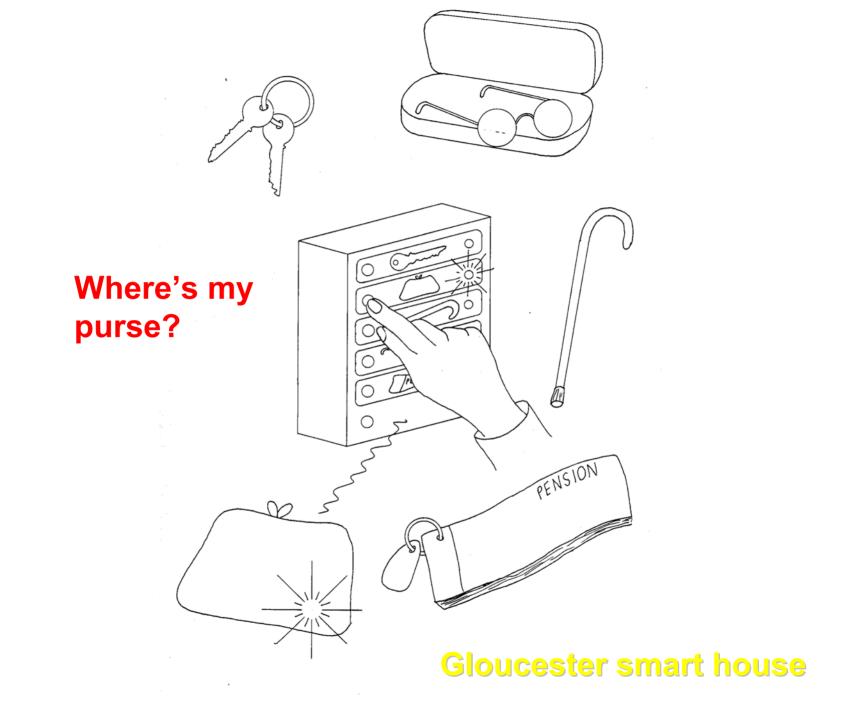

User behaviour

House reaction

Complex user reactions

Example: Locator for lost objects

Gloucester smart house

Acknowledgements

Smart house developments supported by an EPSRC grant as part of the EQUAL programme

Some evaluation work supported through the European Commission 5th framework ENABLE project