CISE Graduate Student Travel Grant

1. Eligibility Requirements
   Applicant must satisfy all of the following eligibility requirements:
   - Applicant is a PhD student in CISE.
   - Applicant's Ph.D. advisor should be a CISE faculty with tenure home in CISE.
   - Applicant’s Ph.D. advisor does not have sufficient funding to cover the travel expenses.
   - Applicant must be presenting the paper at a conference.
   - Applicant should be the first author of the paper.
   - Applicant must be affiliated with UF on the paper and in the conference program.
   - Travel funding is on a pre-approved basis only.
   - Applicant can receive only one travel grant within one calendar year.

2. Ranking Criteria
   Preference is given to applicants
   - Presenting papers at premier peer-reviewed international conferences (such as ACM and IEEE sponsored conferences)
   - The paper is accepted as a full paper and was reviewed as a full paper
   - If there are two or more students with the same advisor seeking grants in a semester, at most one will receive preference.

3. Approval Process
   This selection criteria has been
   - Revised by the CISE Award and Recognition Committee on September 15, 2017
   - Approved by the Department Chair Dr. Gilbert on September 18, 2017