Dependencies

May exist between functional components

May exist between assurance components

May exist between functional and assurance components

Arise when a component is not sufficient by itself and relies on the presence of another component

Dependency descriptions are part of CC component definitions

Must be satisfied when incorporating components into PPs and STs for completeness